

From: Durant, Jennah
To: Miller, Garyg
Subject: RE: San Jac
Date: Friday, April 08, 2016 10:33:45 AM
Attachments: image001.png

Thanks!

From: Miller, Garyg
Sent: Friday, April 08, 2016 10:31 AM
To: Walters, Donn <walters.donn@epa.gov>; Sanchez, Carlos <sanchez.carlos@epa.gov>; Meyer, John <Meyer.John@epa.gov>; Durant, Jennah <Durant.Jennah@epa.gov>
Subject: FW: San Jac

FYI – Satya at TCEQ just sent this.

Regards,

Gary Miller
Remedial Project Manager
EPA Region 6 – Superfund Division (6SF-RA)
214-665-8318
miller.garyg@epa.gov

From: Satya Dwivedula [<mailto:Satya.Dwivedula@tceq.texas.gov>]
Sent: Friday, April 08, 2016 10:27 AM
To: Miller, Garyg <Miller.Garyg@epa.gov>
Subject: San Jac

Cap work intensifies

Posted: Thursday, April 7, 2016 12:00 am

By Christopher James christopher.james@baytownsun.com | 0 comments

As promised, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency is holding the corporations involved with the San Jacinto River waste pits to a higher level of accountability.

"They're doing what they said," San Jacinto River Coalition Director Jacquelyn Young said. "And in the last couple of weeks there has been a bit of activity at the waste pits."

9768590